Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Apoorv, Armaan and Raunak are more than best friends, they are practically family. As they set out on a Europe tour to enjoy their time to the fullest, they have no idea that this trip is going to change everything about their life. Apoorv meets Shweta who captures his heart with her enigmatic smile and she befriends them in an unknown land. However, fate plays its part and they lose touch with her. The cacophony of the world catches up with the friends and they are all lost in the mundane life only to bump into Shweta all over again. Read this tale of romance and friendship as it will take you through a journey wherein you will witness the twists and turns of a relationship and experience the emotions that shall run high. There is love, flirting, friendship, tears and joy as you will see each of the characters living their life and playing their role. The world can be a very tiny place and fate could often be a dreaded monster. Will fate entangle two people who were destined to belong...
