Only occasionally was the help given grudgingly. One old lady, whose mind was almost gone, makes her home with a widowed sister whose own income is inadequate. The sister keeps her warm and gives her enough to eat, but does not take the trouble to treat her with kindness or to give the needed physical care. The assistance given by friends to six of the teachers is similar to that given by relatives. The situation of one of these is a pleasant contrast to that just described. This old lady, over 65 years of age, retired twenty years ago on a total pension of $180 and a small savings bank account. She pays a board of $5 a week for a very pleasant home, the same board that she paid twenty years ago. Her landlady, on whom she has no real claim, has taken pains to hide from her the fact that the cost of living has gone up and that her payments do not cover her expenses. Although thirty-five women supplemented their incomes by finding some work, the amounts earned at different times since retirement are small. Eighteen were unable to estimate their yearly earnings; the others earned anywhere from $780 a year for full time work to $50 a year for crocheting. Two have done tutoring, another who has lost the power...
