

Comparative Criminology in Asia

By Jianhong Liu

Springer-Verlag Gmbh Jul 2017, 2017. Buch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - This edited volume presents the diversity of comparative criminology research in Asia, and the complex theoretical and methodological issues involved in conducting comparative research. With contributors both from the West and the East exploring these questions, the Editors have created a balanced resource, as well as set an agenda for future research. The increasing pace of globalization means that researchers should be armed with an understanding of how criminal justice systems work across the world. In the past, comparative research largely compared Western countries to each other, or involved researchers from a Western perspective examining an Asian country, with models and theories developed in the West considered to have universal applications. This work aims to correct that gap, by providing a critical examination of comparative research, presenting quantitative and qualitative research data, and asking new questions that challenge prevailing research norms and provide an agenda for future research. This work will be of interest for researchers across the field of Criminology, particularly those with an interest in International and Comparative Research, research on or about Asia, and related disciplines such as Sociology, Demography, and Social Policy. 'This fine collection...

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE
[3.84 MB]

Reviews

This is an awesome publication i have at any time read. Of course, it is play, still an interesting and amazing literature. You will like just how the author write this book.

-- Prof. Herta Mann

It in one of my personal favorite publication. It is actually rally fascinating through reading through period of time. Its been printed in an extremely basic way in fact it is just after i finished reading through this ebook by which basically transformed me, change the way in my opinion.

-- David Weber