CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 122 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Free-spirited artist Harper McGee is happy to go wherever the wind takes her until her flight pattern sends her back to Brentsville, New York for her beloved grandmother's funeral. Harper's grief turns to shock, however, when she discovers her grandmother has named her sole proprietor of her candy shop, Luscious. But she has no intention of being anchored to one place, and anyway, she doesn't know the first thing about running a kitchen or a business. Selling Luscious is the only viable option until the shop catches fire due to old wiring. Fixing the damage requires major work, and if Harper wants to put it on the market, she needs major help. Thrill-seeking firefighter Aaron Fisher has never walked away from a challenge or a friend. So when a fellow firefighter is hurt on a call and can't complete a side job for his contracting company, Aaron's quick to jump in. He's done plenty of fixer ups for his buddy in the past, and despite his silver spoon upbringing and his no-holds-barred attitude, swinging a hammer suits Aaron just fine. That is, until he discovers the client is the same impetuous woman he forcibly dragged from the flames of Brentsville's local candy shop. The more time Harper and Aaron spend at Luscious, the hotter their attraction burns, daring them both to shed their tough outer layers to reveal the tender desires beneath. But when a buyer makes Harper the offer of a lifetime, she must choose between roots and wings. Can two people who live in the moment learn to see past the moment, or will Aaron and Harper always live their lives pushing the line? This item ships from...
