Laurel Leaf Library, United States, 2010. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 173 x 104 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. It is April 1865. Aiden and Maddy Lynch have barely survived a brutal winter alone on the remains of their family s drought-ravaged Kansas farm when an unlikely savior appears one morning. Jefferson J. Jackson is looking for strong men to work in the Seattle lumber camps, not a half-starved teenager with a useless girl in tow, but somehow the pair convinces him to let them join his wagon train. It is a chance at a new life for Aiden and Maddy, but one that is two thousand rough and perilous miles away. It s said there s a grave a mile on the Oregon Trail, Jackson tells them bluntly. And Aiden soon learns that the greatest dangers go beyond storms, stampedes, and rattlesnakes. When smallpox, the devil s paint, threatens an Indian community Aiden has befriended, his loyalties, wits, and courage are severely tested. Adventure-filled and historically accurate, Victoria McKernan s novel captures both the peril and stunning beauty of the frontier West in an epic American story at once sweeping and intimate, heartbreaking and hopeful.
