Excerpt: .advantageously resume operations in the near future, the estimates for 1911 have been made for the conduct of the institution as an assay office only. The appropriations asked total $17,940, which compares with $107,300 appropriated for the fiscal year 1911. THE MINOR ASSAY OFFICES. In the estimates submitted for 1912 the assay offices at Charlotte and St. Louis are dropped, for the reason that the volume of business handled is unimportant and that the few producers making use of them could without much inconvenience send their bullion direct to the mints, thus saving the Treasury not only the cost of maintaining the offices, but the cost of transporting the bullion to a mint. The larger part of the deposits at the St. Louis office come from Chicago and Cincinnati and the depositors could as well send them direct to the Philadelphia Mint as to St...
