2009. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 354 This concise volume on Christianity presents its history and theology and explores the essentials of the Christian faith. It presents the life and teachings of Jesus, gospels, sacred books and doctrines common to all Christians. It clarifies concepts such as the trinity, eternal soul, heaven and hell, and Christian sacraments. It also gives a detailed account of how Christian faith developed over the centuries and the development of different major branches. This volume, unique in its presentation, is an authentic and exhaustive work bound to fill a big vacuum in Christianity studies. This volume would be able to satisfy the need of all those who desire to know about Christianity.
