Think Pink: The Story of Depatie-Freleng (Hardback) (Hardback)

By Mark Arnold

BEARMANOR MEDIA, 2015. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This is the HARDBACK version. Think Pink! The Depatie-Freleng Story In 1963, Warner Bros. closed down their long-running cartoon facility that had produced such memorable merry-makers as the Looney Tunes and Merrie Melodies cartoons. Director/producer Friz Freleng and executive David H. DePatie faced unwanted early retirement. A generous parting gesture from a Warner executive allowed Freleng and DePatie to lease the former Warner cartoons studio on California Street in Burbank, complete with equipment and supplies, for a few dollars each year. They teamed up to create animated cartoons for advertising, but not everything behind their enterprise was enchanting. They struggled to keep their small animation studio running against odds and obstacles such as rising costs, heavy competition, outsourcing of labor to other countries, strikes, death, changing directions, and buyouts. They never anticipated how they would soon style a series of cartoon characters that would paint memorable colors over movie animation history. When director Blake Edwards produced The Pink Panther starring David Niven, Peter Sellers, Robert Wagner, Capucine, and Claudia Cardinale, he envisioned a cartoon character of the same name to illustrate the opening credits...

Reviews

This book will never be straightforward to start on looking at but extremely exciting to read. I actually have read through and that I am sure that I am going to go through once more again in the future. I am happy to explain how this is the very best book I have read through in my individual lifestyle and may be the best publication for at any time.
