Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Theory and Policy of Labour Protection His plea for more international exchange of Opinions and international uniformity of practice is one which must be echoed by all who have the cause of Labour at heart. To that larger sense of brotherhood which extends beyond the bounds Of country we must look for the accomplishment of the Social Revolution which is surely on the way. On a task SO large, and involving such far reaching issues to the progress of the world, the nations must take hands and step together if the results are to be of permanent value. The paralyzing dread of war, the competition of foreign workmen, the familiar Capitalist weapon that trade will leave the country if the workers claims are conceded all these dangers in the way can only be met by the drawing closer of interna tichal bonds, by the intercommunication of those in all countries who are fired by the new ideals, and are making towards an ordered Social peace out of the chaos Of con ?icting and competing energies and interests in which we live. It cannot but be well to be reminded, as Dr. Schaffie reminds us, of the strong expression of Opinion uttered by the Berlin International Labour Conference as to the beneficial results which might be looked for from a series of such gatherings, or to ask ourselves, why should not England be the next to convene a Labour Conference to gather up the experiences of the last few years, which have been so full of movement and agitation in the Labour world, as well as to give to other nations the benefit of the earnest and strenuous investigations, now. Nearly...
