When people think of Louisville, they think of basketball, the Belle, and the Kentucky Derby. What they don t think about are ghosts -- but they should! Amid the extensive history and current culture of the city there lies an eerie collection of paranormal tales, many of which have been gathered for this book. From the spirits of East Market, the most haunted street in Kentucky, to the harrowing accounts of the majestic Churchill Downs; from the shadows of the ominous Waverly Hills Sanatorium to the sprawling fields of Cave Hill Cemetery; from the spectral encounters of the St. John s Church, to the sad, sinister spirits of the Seelbach Hotel, Jacob and Jenny Floyd bring you both secondhand stories and personal experiences that will reveal to many people that Louisville is no stranger to spiritual activity. Read Louisville s Strange and Unusual Haunts to find out where the ghosts are still among the living.
