His early efforts were a source of trial, as his employers sometimes proved to be unreliable. In Salt Lake City he agreed to work for per month. After three weeks some trouble arose and he was about to leave his employer, when the latter offered him per month. He thereupon agreed to remain and work in the canyon getting out shingle timber, where he made as many as one thousand shingles in a day. He was then promised his board and a certain percentage of the shingles sold, but his employer did the Selling and kept the money. After some controversy, however, payment was secured, and the experience no doubt did much to induce the habit which has subsequently become prominent in the life of Brother Merrill, a habit of working on his own account. In November of the year 1853 Brother Merrill was married to Sarah A. Atkinson, and immediately went to a...
