During the decade following the date of this treaty the Southeastern States were being rapidly settled by white persons, and it was determined by the authorities of the United States that it was desirable to effectuate the removal of all the Indians residing in that locality to a territory to be set apart to them west of the Mississippi River. The Choctaws by their treaty of 1820 had already acquired a large domain west of the river, and commissioners were sent to Mississippi to treat with them and to obtain, if possible, their removal to their lands west. Accordingly the treaty of September 27, 1830, was negotiated. On behalf of the United States John H.Eaton and John Coffee were appointed commissioners, and they were instructed to proceed to Mississippi for the purpose of entering into a treaty with the Choctaws. On the 18 th day of September, 1830, the said commissioners met the chiefs and headmen of the Choctaws and delivered to them a talk, as it is called in the journal of the commissioners. This talk was for the purpose of inducing the Indians to enter into negotiations with the commissioners, and as showing the representations made to the Indians will be here quoted. The material parts of it are as follows: By direction of your great father we have come...
