Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Journal of the Bacon Society: June, 1886 This periodical owes its origin to the establishment at the close of last year, under the style and designation of the Bacon Society, of a Society for Promoting the Study of the Works and Life of Francis Bacon, and, as a portion of such study, to investigate his supposed connections with the composition of the writings attributed to Shakespeare. A society for promoting the study of the writings of the wisest of mankind carries with its object its own justification, and that being so, the establishment by it of an organ or instrument, whereby to discourse harmoniously to its members, needs also no apology. For if there be reasons for the existence of the society itself, there is reason also for its endowment with the faculty of speech. The object of the journal is primarily to afford information to its members residing in the country and abroad, and who may be unable in consequence to be present at its meetings, of its proceedings from time to time, and thus to afford to them the means of interesting in it and its work friends, not members, but like-minded. But it is not desired to stop here. It is hoped to render it the repository for communications, suggestions, and enquiries from members, as well as from correspondents, not members, but interested, or inclined to be, in its work. This periodical will, therefore, at all times, be ready to receive communications likely to promote its objects either by sympathetic comment or by candid and courteous criticism. It is content to sacrifice the austere dignity of a Journal of Proceedings, in order...
