Excerpt from Half-Yearly Report of the London Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints: Held in the City of London, Saturday and Sunday, May 31st and June 1st, 1851 The Presidents of Branches and Travelling Elders of the London Conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints assembled in the Eastern Lecture Hall, Church Lane, Whitechapel, on Saturday, the 31st day of May, 1851, at one o'clock p.m., for the transaction of Conference business. The meeting was opened by singing the first hymn, and prayer. Elder Eli B. Kelsey, the president of the conference, then arose and said, The presidents of branches present are requested to prepare to give in their reports to the secretary when called upon, that there may be no unnecessary delay. There is a great deal of business to be done, and it is necessary that it be done to-day, so that we need not be under the necessity of occupying more than the forenoon of to-morrow to close up all conference business, and give such instructions to the priesthood as may be deemed necessary to sufficiently impress upon their minds several matters of importance that must necessarily be strictly attended to in the coming half year, that the present flourishing condition of the conference may not only be maintained, but a greater impetus be given to the work in the six months to come than in the six months that are past. We are a progressive people - we are engaged in a progressive work, and should, therefore, do better in the future than in the past. I expect that, during the afternoon and evening, we shall be favoured with...
