Not illustrated. 1917 Excerpt: .our State and conducted under their management are all in splendid condition. The Pennsylvania Memorial Home at Brook ville is under the auspices of the Women s Relief Corps. The G. A. R. Home at Hawkins Station and the Home for the Grand Army veteran and wife, Philadelphia, are under the auspices of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic. These institutions are doing a vast amount of good in caring for the disabled veteran and his wife and the widow and orphan. Too much praise cannot be accorded these patriotic and self sacrificing women. It is earnestly urged upon comrades to form a closer affiliation with the Sons of Veterans. Many Posts are benefited by having formed a close bond of friendship with the Sons but in a number of localities little interest has been manifested. During the next few years the favorable attitude of the Posts towards the Sons will contribute largely to their influence in maintaining the objects and continuing the work of the Grand Army of the Republic. The Department was well represented at the Fiftieth National Encampment at Kansas City, Mo., there was a full representation in the Encampment and over three hundred comrades in the parade. The Department was especially honored by having Past Department Commander W. J. Patterson elected to the office of Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, a worthy successor to the illustrious comrades from Pennsylvania who preceded him. It gratified all comrades...
