WHATEVER HAPPENED TO THE PECORDS? (PAPERBACK)

Key Publishing Company, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand *****.

WHATEVER HAPPENED TO THE PECORDS? This book is a TRUE mystery story (It is not a CRIME STORY, It may turn out to be one but not at this time) of a missing family, the Pecords, who vanished from their home. They were the last remote stop on the author s paper route, 50 ft. from the Connecticut River, one Friday evening, early Fall 1959. Parts of the theme and era s similarities were evident in Stand by Me which was set a year later in 1960 based on the fiction novella The Body by Stephen King. Instead of calling the police, he called two buddies to conduct their own investigation and nearly got killed. The book is also a memoir in a sense that the author allows the reader to peer into the 50s era as he remembers it, through the use of nervous flashbacks he incurred and recorded afterwards, during a run for his life, Because of a sworn oath between he and his two buddies, he was unable to tell their story until now. As a coincidence, a relatively new college [Goodwin College] purchased the missing family s home, and invited the author to tour the home with them after 50+ years, for one last time. (They acknowledged that they planned to tear it down and build the President s cottage on the site.) They shared with him how the street he grew up got its name, Colt Street, and they described how the Pecords home was originally part of a ferry landing set up by Samuel Colt (Colt 45). Mr. Colt also lived in their ferry landing house, while another of his mansions was being constructed...
