

The Life Redirection Handbook: A Guide to Vocational Peace and Success

By Douglas R Anderson

Booksurge Publishing, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The information/technology revolution is fundamentally restructuring American society and economy at a rate that is above the threshold of pain of most people. Job security is declining at a rapid rate so that almost every worker is challenging his present status or values. The job seeker or the person looking for a new direction in life is at a disadvantage without proven and specific information and tools to meet the challenges of the 21st Century. The Life Redirection Handbook is a singular source to aid either the job seeker or the person looking for a new direction in life to meet these challenges. Making correct decisions about the future is dependent upon an individual knowing himself, understanding where he is, and determining what he wants and how he is going to get there. The change in the fundamental relationship between people and work puts any vocational seeker at a disadvantage without an understanding of the new rules. This book addresses all these areas.
