After eight long years in an unhappy marriage, she s ready to throw in the towel. Her workaholic husband, Bentley, is done too-choosing his career over his wife. They ve met with their lawyers and only need to get through the holidays until their divorce is finalized. Bentley isn t ready to tell his family about the divorce, so he asks Caroline to spend one more Christmas at his mom s under the ruse they are still happily married. Together, they set out on a seven hour car ride in the middle of the Canadian Caribou to put on one last happy show. What could be an opportunity to rekindle their love and spend quality time together turns out to be a road trip from hell. When a surprise snow storm catches them off guard, Bentley and Caroline find themselves in an accident without any possibility of help in their near future. At one point, their love was all they needed to survive. But now, when all they have is each other against the frigid winter storm, will they find the love they lost before it s too late? Or will this be the end.in more ways than one for Mr. and Mrs. Harrison? The road back to us may be a turbulent path, but in the end, it s worth the chaos because it leads back home.
