The Entropy Police: Practicing Information Security in the Enterprise (Paperback)

By Cissp Richard a Guida

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Engineer and information security expert Richard A. Guida spent his professional career practicing information security in the U.S. Navy and in Fortune 500 companies. He learned what worked and what failed and applied his technical and professional skills as an executive to overcome the complex challenges that information security presents. Now Guida has compiled this experience and knowledge in The Entropy Police, an engaging and perceptive guide for anyone looking to understand what it takes to successfully address information security in an organization. Because human nature affects our perceptions on everything, The Entropy Police does more than simply recite the complex variety of security risks out there in the world-it highlights the ways our own biases can influence and distort our approach to security. Having seen firsthand how technical and institutional misconceptions can affect organizational security practices, Guida focuses on intellectual honesty as a rallying point for success. He supplies anecdotes of how biases can adversely affect organizational decision making. Written with authority and sincerity by a seasoned practitioner, The Entropy Police is a must-read for anyone who wants to...
