These journals appear to be giving a disproportionate amount of space to these sciences, but the most impressive feature of the case is that no one seems to be satisfied with the results that are being achieved in this field. Huxley and Spencer fought valiantly for the inclusion of the sciences in the curriculum and they led us to expect much from this inclusion, but now that they are included we cannot hide a feeling of disappointment. The reason for this disappointment is at least twofold. Enthusiasts like Spencer have led us to expect, too much from instruction in the sciences. They have given us the impression that in final analysis there is little except the sciences in this world and that if we would achieve a thoroughly practical and liberal education we must steep our schooling in science on every hand. The humanities in...
