FBC LTD, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Improvement Era, Vol. 9: Organ of Young Men s Mutual Improvement Associations; May 1906 Poultry-keeping. - This has come to be a fad with so many professional men that the Utah Poultry Association is under their control. That poultry-keeping serves a useful purpose in the economy of the home, every house-wife can testify, and I shall endeavor to show that it may be made a valuable means of education. If a young man is going to enter upon this activity intelligently, he must know the origin, characteristics, and classification of the various breeds of domestic fowls; what kind of houses and sheds to build; what sort of inexpensive material will best keep out the frost in winter; how best to arrange roosts, nests, scratching room, and dust baths; the use of litter, gravel, and grit; the kinds of food needed and their relative proportions; and when and how to feed. The reading of a few first-class poultry magazines or books, and a number of agricultural bulletins, dealing with the application of chemical and biological science to the poultry industry, will convince anyone that there is here abundant room for brain activity.
