BURNING ILLUSION: POEMS FOR AVATAR MEHER BABA (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .BURNING ILLUSION Poems for Avatar Meher Baba David Stewart David sent me most of his poems over the years and often he would reveal a little of the poetic process and his philosophy on life and poetry. I would like to quote two of them here because I think they are revealing: I feel that I started writing poetry a bit late in life but my early years were for living to the hilt and being impressed by other writers. Also it takes time to undo the damage done by too much critical and analytical study of poetry at university level. In scientific terms it is the logical left side of the brain dominating the creative right side. The impulse for poetry is deadened by an academic training. Better to read poets and be inspired by them than critical formulas. Poetry helps keep you human rather than abstract spiritual. It has been said that Philosophy is a simple thing made difficult. A difficult thing made simple is awakening. This awakening is to the divine unity of all life and a constant converse delight in its infinite variety. Whether you serve God or humanity the effect is the same and a lot of Deists can take heed of Buddha who stated that it was ridiculous to say you loved God if you turn your back on humanity. The Master I accept, Meher Baba, claims that atheists who cheerfully fulfil their worldly obligations are closer to Him than those Deists who go seeking after saints to relieve them of their worldly obligations. The obligation of the poet is to render beauty and soul's delight in forms for the enhancement of others. A few...
