CANADIAN CASES IN THE PHILOSOPHY OF LAW, 4TH EDITION (PAPERBACK)

Broadview Press Ltd, Canada, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. 4th Revised edition. Language: English . Brand New Book. This is a collection of Canadian legal decisions, mostly from the highest court of the land, that raise and respond to central issues in political and legal philosophy and social ethics. All the issues raised by these cases are current and controversial. They include: the scope of judicial review and legitimate powers of the courts; separation of powers; the nature and scope of rights of speech, association, Aboriginal rights, and legal protections in criminal prosecution; equality and its pursuit in a free and democratic society; autonomy and its protection; the nature of legal responsibility in criminal and tort law; and legitimate punishment. This edition takes into account the many changes that have occurred in our court s interpretation of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms. Twelve new cases have been added, as has a new section on Group Self-Determination that takes into account important changes in Aboriginal rights. Many of the cases from the previous edition have been re-edited and slightly expanded, with follow up cases included to reflect how they are now interpreted.
