Lower Coast Media. Paperback. Condition: New. 352 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.8in. When a dose of misfortune, fueled by sabotage, causes long time friends, Rainey and Creston, to crash on a nameless island in the Pacific Ocean, survival is instinctual but rescue becomes paramount when they discover the remains of a one room, World War II underground Japanese hospital, and the answer to the mystery of Amelia Earharts disappearance. Living in New Orleans would be adventure enough for most people but Rainey is constantly challenged to corral millionaire Creston and keep him grounded. Creston wants a two week trip around the world piloting his private jet, and maybe then settle down. But they are lost after leaving Hawaii and never land in Papua, New Guinea. Their friends keep vigil, even enlisting the help of a seer who provides hope but no immediate answers. Rescued and back in New Orleans, the dilemma of a promise unfolds. And though money is no object it takes courage, perseverance, luck, an ex-wife, and devoted friends to keep a secret while teaching a lost soul to live. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg,OR, La Vergne,TN. Paperback.
