Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Parent-Teacher Associations in Rural and Village Schools Of this bulletin it may be said it carries to the right people the right message at the right time from the right woman. Addressed to rural communities it goes to the right people because, while so much has been written and published for urban communities that is suitable only for solution of urban problems and can be effectively practiced only under urban conditions, comparatively little has been prepared for the problems and conditions of rural life. This bulletin is designed to meet just those problems and conditions that distinguish rural from urban communities, and is therefore a valuable contribution to a national need for which so few well-considered and useful contributions have been made. It carries the right message because it lays special stress upon the importance of health and the need of improving rural conditions in the direction of better sanitary customs, regulations and equipment. It will not be easy to provide in the country districts the sanitary plumbing, draining, sewerage and water supply of cities; neither is it possible to obtain in some rural communities the prompt attendance, counsel and supervision of doctors and health officers. Nevertheless much can be done and will be done when a majority of the people of the rural districts have a clear understanding of the causes of disease and of the best methods of preventing them. The health of children brought up in the open air of the fields and woods of the countrysides should, in the nature of things, be better and more secure than that of city children, but statistics show a contrary condition. It is therefore...
