Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Sold over 500 e-book copies worldwide! Does the great Indian epic poem, the Bhagavad Gita, have relevance in the modern world? Does the ancient poem have any lessons for people battling choices in their busy lives today? AHAM decodes the philosophy behind the Bhagavad Gita through the tale of a young man s journey through success and failure in the ultimate quest for happiness! It is a tale of a young man who believes that the path to true happiness in life is through the relentless pursuit of money. Bom in a middle class Indian family, he works hard towards this goal and starts his own entrepreneurial venture in the United States, through which he tastes immense success and wealth. But, fate has a different agenda and through a series of events, he loses what he struggles hard to build over the years. In this extreme dilemma of how to confront the World in a time of sudden loss, he meets an old, inspiring African-American man who shares his life journey through eighteen stories. Through the canvas of 20th century America, the old man paints his adventures from being a slave to a successful businessman by handling wealth and harnessing happiness with equal finesse. Inspired by the eighteen chapters of the epic Indian poem, the Bhagavad Gita, each story has a life message for the young man who finally realizes the secret ingredients of happiness in life. God and Man engage in conversation! Quoting an avid reader of this book - The story is all about ups and downs in human life- different degrees of ecstasy and misery a young Indian faced...
