Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. What do a waitress on Long Island, an interior decorator in New Jersey, and an attorney in the Hudson Valley of New York have in common? They believe human souls are predisposed to seek God, and by doing so, journey with the souls of others on the pathway to Him. They support their beliefs with numerous examples of otherwise unexplainable events. Tracy s journey begins as a five-year-old who awakens to find spirit beings surrounding her bed. Her claims of nightly visitations gain credibility when older sister Laura shares an extraordinary encounter involving a deceased football player. As Tracy matures, she receives divine messages, dreams, and visions and struggles to incorporate them into her daily life. Laura becomes a successful yet unfulfilled businessperson. While away from her family, she succumbs to an invisible force that propels her into an emotional and spiritual cleansing. Since then, she has become keenly aware of how information tidbits-- puzzle pieces -- are provided to human beings to foster spiritual enlightenment. Their friend Cheryl loses control of her car on an icy roadway. She surrenders her destiny to God as the car lands upside down on a snow-covered pond. The mothers of the three women die after suffering debilitating illnesses. Days, weeks and years after their deaths, dimes, crosses, and angels, appear out of thin air to comfort the women and their family members. Through immensely personal accounts of life-altering events, the authors encourage readers to reflect on their own spiritual journeys, break through the fear that prevents enlightenment, and be open to the many and varied methods of communication with God. Their relatable stories are perfect entrees into how to do so.
