Not illustrated. 1889 Excerpt: .Put this flannel about your throat, and I will sing you a lullaby. Bessie trotted to school through the soaking rain. See how the water is flooding the gutters. They have graded the bank, and sown grass seed upon it. Come to the molding-board, and I will make some mountains and a valley. Level means flat. An object is anything we can see, handle, or think about. A canon is a deep passage cut in the solid rock by a river in its course. The Colorado River runs through a very large canon. Fido is a pretty little black and white dog. He belongs to Nathalie, and the two are as merry as crickets all day long. Dear Grandpapa sent Nathalie a beautiful birthday present; it was a piano. After the piano came and was put in place, mamma sat down to it and began to play All of a sudden a loud howl was heard. Mamma jumped up. Run and see where Fido is, darling,11 she said. Why, mamma, answered little Nathalie; he1s right here by the fire. Mamma sat down again and went on playing. Fido howled steadily with her. What can be the matter with him; is he sick? she said, looking very anxious. I guess he1s singing, said Nathalie. And so it was. Poor Fido liked the music as well as any one, and in his dog-way tried to join in with it. It was funny music, and amused everybody who came...
