Forgotten Books, 2018. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The X-Ray, Vol. 4: 1916 United States built in real Egyptian Architecture. The building besides being unique in this respect inspires one with a feeling of awe and grandeur. It closely resembles the monumental tombs and sepulchres of the ancients. It now has the added dignity of age. Its sombre gray. Walls are ivy clad and present in winter an extremely dismal appearance. Doubtless it reminds the students of that place on the door of [which is written, All hope abandon, ye who enter here. Approaching the building from the east (front) there is absolutely no sign of a door. You pass between the massive columns and come upon a sheer wall rising to a height of fifty feet. The captions of the square columns are engraved with that classical Egyptian Arabesque, the Isis. In the wings of this mythical bird are entwined their heads which come over the bird's body and face each other. If we turn to either side we find a door built in the corner as it were, flush with, and not breaking the continuity of the wall. The door as well as the knobs are in that same sombre gray and are practically invisible. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
