INTUITION AND BEYOND. mUST as there are mental planes which the investigator naturally classifies as below the ordinary planes of consciousness--the instinctive plane; the physical-function plane; the habitplane; and even the plane on which the so-called automatic thinking, etc. , manifests--so are there many planes which one naturally thinks of as above the ordinary plane. As we have said, not only are there the basements and sub-cellars beneath the floor of the packing and shipping department of the mind, but also many upper stories above that floor. Upon these upper floors of the mind rest those things which the world calls Genius; Inspiration; Intuition; Spiritual Power; and other names denoting higher faculties of the mind. Kay says: It is in the ultra-conscious region of the mind that all its highest operations are carried on. It is here that genius works. Carlyle said:...
