Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A New Chain of Plain Argument, Deemed Conclusive Against Trinitarianism: Addressed to a Trinitarian Writer for the Panoplist, in a Series of Candid Letters Sir, As the following letters will first meet your eye from the press, you will be apprized of the subject of them as soon as you shall have read the title page. May it not then be well for you to call to mind one of the resolutions of the celebrated President Edwards, before you come to any thing of the nature of argument in what I shall offer for your consideration? I observe, says Mr. Edwards, that old men seldom have any advantage of new discoveries, because they are fixed in a way of thinking to which they have long been accustomed. I resolved, if ever I come to years, that I will be impartial to hear the reasons of all pretended discoveries, and receive them, if rational, how long so ever I have been used to a different way of thinking. Happy it would be for individuals, happy it would be for the church of God and for society at large, if men in every station of influence would ever act in strict conformity to the foregoing resolution. But Sir, how rarely do men act as Mr. Edward saw that propriety and his own advantage required of him? Do you not at once perceive, that it is not a very easy thing for one in your situation to lay aside all self-interest, prejudice, and prepossessions, so as to consider duly, and weigh impartially, any arguments, which may be offered against the doctrine of the Trinity? After having taken, so...
