Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Notice We have seen this book of Types, which reviles the common version of the scriptures which we read in our family devotions, in the possession of some of its subscribers, and heard several of them complain that through the cunning devices of Nott and Glitdon who led them to suppose that they were to receive a scientific work on the doctrine of the diversity of the human races, supported by the matured views of Morton, Agassiz and others, they had been completely entrapped and deceived. Now it appears that the contributions from Agassiz amounted to 17 pages, the substance of which he admits he had published nine years before, and which may be found in much fuller detail in one of his school books (principles of Zoology, pp. 154 nor did he add that in both these works, he insisted that man alone was a cosmopolite. His domain is the whole earth. For him and with a view to him it was created. Twenty-seven pages are inserted from Morton's unedited manuscripts for which, if they...
