

Beware of the Therapist: How His Lust for My Suicidal Wife Destroyed Our Family and What I Did to Ensure He Could Never Hurt Anyone Again (Paperback)

By Jeff Brandt

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Instantly attracted to her when they first met, Gini is everything Jeff wants in a wife: breathtakingly beautiful, deeply charismatic, smart, athletic, and fun. At age 36, she brings three hurt and confused daughters to their marriage. She also brings a hidden, troubled past that has rendered her depressed and suicidal. Crumbling under the stress of a painful betrayal by her desperately envious sister and angry, critical mother, Gini decides to kill herself but is unsuccessful. Enter Josh, Gini's therapist. Josh is young, never-married, and secretly filled with lust. Obsessed with Gini, he arranges one sexually charged, clandestine, drunken rendezvous after another with her disguised as part of her treatment. Follow Jeff to the depths of emotional hell--and back--as Josh destroys everything he held most dear and Jeff plans and executes his revenge; revenge that takes Josh down in the way he feared most. In this riveting true story, author Jeff Brandt passionately describes his struggle to hold his new family together while battling every form of dark, dramatic human event: suicide, abortion, drug and alcohol abuse, family...
