By H M Sealey

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Misha Price is a reasonably ordinary fourteen-year-old living in a tiny little village halfway up a mountain in Snowdonia. It s not the most exciting place on earth, but when something happens that brands her either psychotic or dangerous or both, life quickly becomes intolerable. Sent by her worried parents to stay with her Great-Uncle Elijah, Misha begins to learn that maybe she isn t psychotic at all; maybe she isn t imagining seven-foot angels or imagining demons squatting in the bodies of her innocent school-friends. Maybe these things, however incredible, are the truth. Maybe she isn t going mad. Richard Heath hates his life. Stuck in a miserable religious cult and dragged out by his zealous mother in all weathers to preach doomsday and Armageddon to anyone who ll listen, Rick spends a lot of time wishing the ground would just swallow him up and desperately pretending he believes everything he s taught, even if it does earn him the nickname Gobo - God Boy - from the kids at school. Then he meets a girl staying with mad old...
