Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In Code Name Bella Dawn, we deal with money and in particular gold being used as a weapon of war. After all, South Africa has 74 of the world s gold reserves. It is a much more interesting topic than first realised. Like many others, I was concerned about perpetual small wars that benefit only the Merchants of Death and cause tremendous problems for the future generations. We love history in GMJ Books, we always go back in time to see what we can learn, and I made a few interesting discoveries. Did you know, for instance, that when Adolf Hitler seized Czechoslovakia he also got hold of their gold reserves and not only their tanks (excellent for the time - they formed a significant part of General Heinz Guderian s victorious panzer divisions in 1940) and formidable weapons industry? Yet, the gold bullion so stolen was in London, not in Czechoslovakia. The gold was kept in London to safeguard it against abuse. In later years, West Germany did the same. After the 1940 defeats, all of the UK s and the British Empire s wealth including gold reserves went to Canada for safekeeping. A large portion of France s gold bullion was already kept on a small island in the West Indies (some say St Martinique) out of Hitler s reach and kept hostage there by the watching Royal Navy. Thus, you may say that the politicians of the day well knew the value of gold as a weapon of war or they would not have taken the above measures. Yet, Sir Montagu Norman, the Governor of the Bank of England, released all the Czechoslovakian gold to Nazi Germany on request....
