Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Random House UK | War and Peace in the Asian Century. Nominated: Orwell Prize 2017 | The West's domination of world politics is coming to a close. The flow of wealth and power is turning from West to East and a new era of global instability has begun. A masterly account. the best survey of global affairs I have read for some time's Sunday Times WITH A NEW PREFACE BY THE AUTHOR The West's domination of world politics is coming to a close. The flow of wealth and power is turning from West to East and a new era of global instability has begun. Easternisation is the defining trend of our age - the growing wealth of Asian nations is transforming the international balance of power. This shift to the East is shaping the lives of people all over the world, the fate of nations and the great questions of war and peace. A troubled but rising China is now challenging America's supremacy, and the ambitions of other Asian powers - including Japan, North Korea, India and Pakistan - have the potential to shake the whole world. Meanwhile the West is struggling with economic malaise and political populism, the Arab world...
