I just began reading this pdf. It is actually written in straightforward words instead of hard to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

For this reason saintly people and Christ Himself had made use of parables, and even the devil had his fables in the papacy, in Mohammedanism, and in the Talmud, which, however, serve no other purpose than to enlarge the empire of the devil, and to draw people away from God and from the truth. On the other hand, our fables minister to the service of Him who has given them, and show forth His praise and honour, teach virtue and good morals, and are productive of great benefits. To such fables belonged, for instance, the account by a frog of the relics at Treves: 1 See especially Book II. Fables 60, 62, 100; Book III. Fables 6, 83; Book IV.
