Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from New England Medical Gazette, Vol. 13 With foreknowledge of obstacles in our path, they at once cease to be dangerous. Let us look at some other difficulties, they are 23often appalling. Besides want of method or want of time to apply it in, there is partisan ship arising as In politics from avarice and envy of others better fortunes. Superstition arising from ignorance, is often made the step ladder to success, or what is called success by the masses. Let us look at these traits. I might speak of them In one breath. Those who are super stitious, filled with unbounded confidence In themselves and impelled by strong unqualified partisanship for our, or any other. School, are those who fancy they can plow, sow, and reap the field of medicine in three months. It cannot be. Done. Look at the obstacles singly for a moment. To accomplish your object, study our science for its own sake first. To do this, take plenty of time, and I maintain that those who are best endowed with intellectual faculties.
