Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Triennial Report of the Secretary of the Class of 1876 of Harvard College: Secretary's Report, No. 2; June, 1876-June, 1879 In presenting to the class their first Triennial Report, the Secretary desires to thank those who have promptly answered the questions which were sent them, and thus contributed to making this Report as full and accurate as it is. No pains have been spared to secure all the information possible about all of the class but some members have found their time too precious to reply to the questions asked, and they must not feel slighted at having brief mention, and occasional mistakes in their records. The Secretary is anxious to have these Triennial Reports of value and, to be of value, they must be accurate and complete. To further this end all of the class, both graduates and non-graduates, are urged to write once in a while to the Class Secretary, and mention any items of interest, as marriage, births, and other facts which would be desirable to have for succeeding reports. Particularly, change of address should...
