Jake Andrews (born April 16, 1980) is an American blues rock guitarist, singer and songwriter from Austin, Texas. Andrews began playing guitar at age 5, taught by his father, John Andrews of the 1960s band, Mother Earth. At an early age, he began attending shows at the blues venue, Antone s, to see blues musicians such as B. B. King and Albert Collins perform. At age 8, Andrews first went onstage to play guitar with Albert King. Impressed with the young guitarist, King invited him to play with him for his entire second set. That moment sparked Andrews young career, and he continued to hone his skills in the clubs of Austin, Texas, regularly performing with local musicians such as Jimmie Vaughan.
