Jesu Tod Und Unser Leben: Was Das Kreuz Bedeutet (Paperback)

By Walter Klaiber

Evangelische Verlagsanstalt, Germany, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. 2nd. Language: German . Brand New Book. English summary: Why did Jesus have to die? Did God really need a sacrifice to cope with our guilt? Why doesn't he simply forgive us? These questions occupy many of our thoughtful fellow Christians. Nor is it clear what the Bible has to say on this issue. Is this how Jesus himself understood his death? And what is the actual meaning of early Christian concepts such as sacrifice, atonement, or ransom? These are the questions that Walter Klaiber's new book addresses. The biblical messages are explained in a generally understandable language. Klaiber demonstrates how the old terms address fundamental issues that concern us today just as much as they concerned Christians living in earlier times. The result is no hermetic system intended to explain why God could not possibly have acted differently. But it becomes clear how in the New Testament the mystery is revealed that through the death of Jesus, God and his love came very close to mankind. In this manner, God overcomes mankind's remoteness and opens the way to a completely new alliance with him. German text. German description: Warum...
