OUT OF THE NEST: AN ITALIAN SUMMER (PAPERBACK)

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Italy, 1990. At eleven, Leda is a strong-headed bookworm and a tomboy who can't fit anywhere as her world splits into girls and boys. Puberty is nonsensical and irritating until she falls victim to her first crush. On the background of the 14th FIFA soccer world cup Leda deals with middle school, periods, and first kisses in what will be the best summer of her life. Set against the gorgeous backdrop of northern Italy and Tuscany, this funny, moving, and insightful memoir will have preteens and adults laugh and cry, empowering girls and women to be their brave true selves. Based on the life of the author -professor of Biology, cancer researcher, and novelist GB Amman- this fictionalized series is recommended for fans of emotional, addictive reads with something to teach. Though self-standing, this is the second book in The Italian Saga. Praise for Out of the Nest The author captures the flavor of Italy and more important the flavor and quintessence of childhood and adolescence in this immensely readable book. -Grady Harp, Amazon HALL OF FAME TOP 500 REVIEWER Evokes the sights, sounds, and smells of Italy. -Books Direct The author really transports you into the life and psyche of the main character, Leda, as she journeys through her formative years. I don't typically read this genre but cannot wait to see where the adventures of Leda lead to! -Dan Stripp This book was amazing! Great for teens as it speaks with experience about what thoughts enter their heads, but also great for adults who may have forgotten what teens have to go through. -Tori Hoffert This series is a win win for parents with teens, and teens with...
