Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Sketch of William Alfred Buckingham The face of Gov. Buckingham has become very familiar to the people of New England, and indeed of the whole land. By his personal presence in so many places, and on so many occasions of public interest, great multitudes of this living generation have seen and known him. By the aid of art, his picture has been taken up and circulated through the whole country. It is a face which, once seen, is not likely to be forgotten, or confounded with the faces of others. It stands out, by itself, clear to the eye and clear to the memory. There was a manly beauty, not only in his features, but in his whole person and in his bearing, that made him a man to be remembered. An inherited and cultivated politeness, a gentlemanly dignity, a winning and courtly action, were joined in him with great force and executive ability. Whether presiding at some public meeting, or mingling in the social gathering, or meeting his neighbors in the common thoroughfares of life, there was a grace, a decorum in every word and in every movement. One chief reason why he was so widely known personally, and will be so widely remembered, is, that he ranged through so large a field of activities. It is rare that any one man moves in so many different spheres, and comes in contact with his fellow-men at so many varied and diversified points. In the first place, he was a man of very large business, well known in the central circles of trade and commercial activity. When he entered prominently into public political life, he...
