

Friendships and Relationships

By Claudette Henderson

AuthorHouse. Paperback. Condition: New. 48 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 6.0in. x 0.3in. Every poem in this book relates to something that took place in my life and made a big change in it. It started when my husband, the love of my life, was literally fine one day and dead the next. He had diabetes and didn't know it. He had no signs or symptoms. I took him to the hospital one Saturday evening and came back home Sunday morning without him. I didn't realize until I got to the car, in the hospital parking lot, that it was my birthday. He died on my birthday January, 26. I was angry at God, I asked him for a trade. We had three children and I was afraid to raise them alone. The first poem in this book is called January 26 in reference to that day. After he died, I got very little sleep at night, so, I wrote to release angry feelings. Every situation I went through or have to deal with came out in poetry. I tried to date once or twice, over the past couple of years, but, I think I forgot how. After all, it's been...
