History Press. 1 Laminated Cover(s), 2011. hard. Book Condition: New. At any party, there's always someone who stands out from the crowd because he or she speaks more intelligently and tells better jokes than nearly anyone else. If you've ever wished you were as knowledgeable and witty as that person, Keith Souter's handbook shows you how you can be or at least seem to be. The first part, which explains serious scientific topics in an entertaining and accessible manner, includes some handy techniques for winning an argument, getting your point across, telling a joke, and generally making the most of yourself. The second part provides the essentials about literature, history, art, music, science, sports, and other subjects that will suggest you are cultured, intelligent, and well-read. 223.
