In a peaceful little village in England on a street called Lime Grove, stands a house on top of a hill. Within this home a family live who seem peculiar, at first this is not clear why this is so. In this family a father, mother and son and daughter live. Only they are rarely seen in the day, never venturing out while the sunlight is bright. Living in the shadows what do they hide. Whispers and rumours are spreading though the village folk fingers point and rumors stir peoples imagination. Out of the corner of your eye shadows are seen when you pass by but no one seems to be their. Screams and howls through the night scare and panic. Neighbours fear to tread to near and animals are seen to stay well clear. People are noticing strange animals around rats are without tail bats have no wings and toads have lost their warts but what could this mean. The questions build with no answers to hand, fear continues to grow but no one dare confront...
