Excerpt: . . . essential safeguards would all be repealed, and the District would be effectively barred from enacting firearm regulations in the future. My staff has prepared a legislative analysis of the impact of H. R. 6691, and I ask that it be made available to Members and part of today's hearing record. And, without objection. We are fortunate to have some of the Nation's top experts at today's hearing to explain to us the impact of repealing D. C. s gun laws. Cathy Lanier is the chief of the Metropolitan Police Department. It is her officers who clear the way for official motorcades and shoulder much of the burden of protecting Federal and foreign officials. Phillip Morse is the chief of the Capitol Police. His officers are primarily responsible for the security of this building and the rest of Congress. Kevin Hay is the deputy chief of the U. S. Park Police. His officers maintain security in and around the National Mall and the...
