Gittle, A Girl of the Steppes was inspired by the handwritten memoirs of the author s grandmother, a spirited Jewish woman who grew up in 19th century Ukraine, then controlled by Russia. Gittle is only 10 months old when the family sleigh overturns in the wintry countryside and her mother is killed. Gittle is found alive, rescued from wolves, and becomes her father s favorite, educated beyond the norm for girls in those times. She barely escapes and on her way home, meets a traveling mill salesman who becomes smitten with her. Gittle s story is a gripping tale of one woman s struggle...
