Lourdes Amoloria, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Grieving is a complicated response over the loss of someone s much valued presence in your life. Often the loss of a loved one because of death can bring suffering no words can ever describe. The psychic wound is so deep, every cell of your system is affected, and there is no place to hide or a way to bury the inner longing for the physical presence of the deceased. This book brings out in the open the bereaved parents experience of joy and fulfilment during the birth of a much wanted and only child, Mary Jo, the gift of parenthood, the unexpected condition of their baby, the triumph of raising her against medical odds, the drama of her life and death and how her parents found the gift amidst grief, loss and tears and the consuming grip on one s psyche because of multiple losses. This book is for the strong and the lucky ones who have battled life s challenges with outcomes in a time frame they wanted, this is also for the many, like the author, who hide their broken hearts being busy with a job and other things and just hoping one day the sadness will evaporate into thin air. It is also for anyone who wants to be empowered, to recover and to understand what clinicians and the author actually experienced in facing life s most challenging battle, losing a significant and loved person. The impact of Mary Jo s death was so unexpected. She was a well-loved child, so well cared for. Why of the many children on planet earth, would she be chosen to die at age of two years...
