ADULT LEARNING BASICS

Paperback. Condition: New. 167 pages. For anyone who teaches, trains, coaches, or mentors others, the adult learning process is a crucial element of success for both individuals and their organizations. Yet many managers, supervisors, and executives take for granted that all learners learn the same way. That's where this book comes in, serving as a practical primer on adult learning. You'll find a thorough background on learning theory to help you consider key questions about adult learning challenges, such as: How...
